plishes a feat that well high celes the laws of gravitation. It is an act so startling in its nature that it causes the content of the safety of the aerialist.

There are a score of clowns that will not only cause the children to scream with delight, but will wreck the gravity of those who have reached mature years. Among them are Charles H. Phillips. T. B. Hicks, Wilkie Freeman, George Pollock, William H. Allen, Lonnie Wilson, Hon. S. L. Kelley, C. O. Saville, Hughly Mercer, William H. Thompson, Luther Cheatwood, Sam Cook, Albert O. Boshen, Harry C. Glonn, E. E. Davis, W. T. Hurt, Lee Lorraine, Isaac Held, Harry Tucker, Thomas J. Farley, Young Porter, Herbert Hulce and Leonard Noel.

THE TRAINED PONY.

The trained pony, which will be exhibited by Mr. Busser, is a heautiful little animal, and is certain to receive the description, by the ladies and children, of "Just too cute for anything." The pony, among other tricks, will see-saw with two little tos."

among other tricks, will see-saw with two little to.s.*

A clover as well as a pretty act is that of Mazeppa, the Japanese rope walker. Clinton Boyd will do a slack wire act that has been pronounced as clover as that of any professional. The "brother act" of Kindervater and Payne deserves to be featured, as it will be in both performances to-day.

In the list of feature acts that of Captain Harry Bonavita Tuckerita must not be omitted. A steel barred areas has been creeted, similar to the one used by the treat trainer of the Besteck show, and erected, similar to the one used by the great trainer of the Bestock show, and into this will be placed a llon. Then Captain Tuckerita will enter the cage, and the fun will begin.

There are too many acts on the programme to mention all of them. It is sufficient to say that each one will serve its purpose of entertaining and amusing the audience, which promises to fill the Horse Show building. Tickets will be on sale to-day at Branch R. Allen's, on on sale to-day at Branch R. Allen's, on Main Street. Until 5 o'clock this after-noon tickets may be secured there. After that hour they will be on sale at the Horse Show building. The afternoon performance commences at 3 o'clock, and the night performance at 8:45. Doors open an hour earlier. There S:45. Doors open an hour earlier. There will be a band concert of thirty minutes before each performance. The show begins promptly at the hours named, and some of the very best acts are among the opening numbers.

The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, being conducted by Rev. Asa Driscoll. The interment will be in Maury Cemetery.

ORDINANCE AMENDMENTS, At line meeting of the Ordinance Committee the Council rules were amended so as to conform with the requirements of the Constitution. The most important of these resolutions affect the method of voting on appropriations.

REORGANIZATION OF COUNCIL. When the Council meets next week, the form of reorganization will be gone through with, although there will be few changes in the complexion of the committees as they now stand.

Mr. Patram will continue as chairman of the Streets Committee; Mr. Bradley, of the Plunnec Committee; Mr. Owen, of the Lands and Buildings, and Mr. Abbott, of the Ordinances.

It is entirely probable that Mr. Reams will succeed Mr. Wakefield as president of the lower branch, and Mr. Perdue will continue at the head of the Board of Aldernen.
